

Better Business Bureau's Torch Award for Marketplace Ethics 2005 Winners

The Torch Award is given to companies that demonstrate a superior commitment to business ethics, customer satisfaction, and dedication to the community. Each nominee for the Torch Award submitted written documentation showing the company's commitment to marketplace ethics. Each application is reviewed by a panel of independent judges comprised of business owners, professionals, and business and ethics professors from NYS universities.

Large Category Winner (100 - 999 employees)

Comfort Windows and Doors

60 John Glenn Boulevard
Syracuse, New York 13209
(315)457-0022
<http://www.comfortwindows.com>

Medium Category Winner (11 - 99 employees)

National Fire Adjustment Co., Inc

One NFA Park
Amherst, New York 14228
(716) 689-7700
<http://www.nfa.com>

Small Category Winner (1 – 10 employees)

Respiratory Services of WNY, Inc

3229 Broadway Street
Cheektowaga, New York 14227
(800) 466-2959
<http://www.respiratoryservices.com>

The winners will be honored with individual community events held at their business location.